Check-In: Welcome Desk

When you arrive at Innovation Works during business hours, the first faces you see are our Welcome Desk Volunteers and Customer Service Assistant. They will be happy to greet you and answer questions. Feel free to introduce yourself and make yourself comfortable. We ask that you use the iPad upon check-in to notify who you are meeting in the space and to let them know you are here.

Co-tenant or Host Contact Info

After business hours, we ask that you communicate with whom you are meeting directly and let them know when you are arriving so they can let you into the building.

Parking

We do not have parking onsite for guests however, there are various city parking lots surrounding Innovation Works in Downtown London that have hourly and daily rates available. We recommend using the Honk Mobile App, which offers two hours free when using the "CORE" discount code upon checkout. For more information regarding bus routes, accessible parking, paratransit, and bike parking, please visit:
